"In the future, and under all circumstances, we must look out for the safety of the America we love, and the American way of life we cherish, under the Bill of Rights." Roy O. Woodruff, U. S. Representative from Michigan.

Municipal Tin Cup Planners

Eric Johnston, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, told a House committee on postwar policies that state and city demands for Federal support of their public works must diminish—that local governments are generally in condition to finance their needs.

At a Chicago meeting of the American Society of Planning Officials a member of the New York City Planning Commission stressed the importance of Federal-State financial aid in carrying out the postwar plans of the greatest city in the United States.

Commenting on municipal begging, the Wall Street Journal said the New Yorker "is far from alone in holding out the municipal tin cup, or dishpan." If cities haven't the ability and pride to handle their own postwar financing, the nation can kiss the idea of a balanced national budget goodbye and prepare for Federal taxation, and inflation that will make a dollar look like a thin dime.

Why Not Now?

The day after Pearl Harbor, when our fleet had been struck a disastrous blow, the commercial airlines of the nation were ready, willing and able to meet the need for swift, dependable transportation of vital materials to our widely scattered armed services.

The government requisitioned more than half the planes owned and operated by the domestic airlines, for this purpose, leaving less than 200 to try to meet the tremendous needs of our country. Commandeering commercial planes was a necessary step to meet the nation's war requirements before airplane production got underway.

But now we are outbuilding the world in all types of planes, including transport, and it would seem that in all fairness to commercial airlines which are carrying record-breaking high priority loads, that they are entitled to a few hundred transport planes when our total plane production of different types is touching the hundred thousand mark annually.

The diversion of a few hours' production such a number would involve, would not dent our international program. On the other hand, it would assure the more rapid movement of passengers and express, and thereby speed up the efficient prosecution of the war.

Due to the shortage of commercial equipment, the government is defeating its own end as the airlines cannot meet the government's own demands for passenger and cargo service. The airlines have been doing a grand job under terrific handicaps, and their plea is reasonable and just when they ask restoration of equipment to a point where at least they can do the job the government asks them to.

Inevitable Cost of War

A cold comparison of figures, appearing in the United States News, shows that clothing, while declining in quality, has risen substantially in price since the beginning of war, notwithstanding price ceilings and a mountain of regulations. According to the News manufacturers have found they can profitably stop making lower-priced items and switch to those with higher price ceilings. The lower quality of material and workmanship of the abandoned low-priced clothing can be found in the new and more expensive lines.

Cotton dresses that sold for $9.95 before the war, now sell for $12.95 and up. Good quality items of children's clothing, when available, are up 25 to 50 per cent. The rise in men's clothing has been less spectacular—up 10 or 15 per cent, but quality is down. And so it goes with practically everything the consumer buys.

Before the war, this country had developed the most efficient distribution system in the world. Every merchant, whether chain or independent, was on his toes to serve the public. He knew his existence depended on efficiency, reasonable prices and high-grade merchandise. If he sold food he had to sell good food. If he sold clothing, it had to be good clothing—for the money. That was the law of competition. And American merchants knew how to live by that law, just as did the manufacturers who supplied the merchants.

Our elaborate wartime system of production and distribution controls has proved it was a poor substitute for the free competitive system in peacetime.

Keep The Horse Before The Cart

Recently a business man accosted a friend who said: "Well, Doctor, I see where they are going to socialize your business under the Federal Social Security Act." The Doctor, who had spent his life helping the ill and afflicted in his community, regardless of their financial circumstances, said: "Oh no, my friend, they are going to socialize you. When the Federal government takes six per cent of your earnings and six per cent from your employer on wages paid you up to a specified amount, tell us what doctor to go to, when, and where, you will be getting the benefits of socialism, not me. When that day comes I will go back to pipe fitting, which is just working with a different kind of pipes than those in a human.

Yes, it's the public, not the doctors, that would suffer from political appointed physicians. There would no longer be incentive for the better doctors to carry on. An independent pipe fitter would have more future than a socialized doctor.

The Jugling Act

Feed payments (subsidies) to increase production of milk, encourages the War Food Administration to consider extension of production cost subsidies to other products. The dairy feed subsidy has been 50c to 80c a cwt. of milk, and 8c a pound of butterfat. This was reduced to a range of 35c to 65c for milk and to 6c for butterfat during May, June, July and August. Then 60c to 90c for milk and 10c for butterfat through next March.

Dairying is being made dependent on government. If the system is extended to eggs and cattle, the "independent" farmer will be a relic of the past.

CINEMATIC CHATTER

By Malcolm Millar
There never was a greater writer of adventure stories than the immortal Jack London and there never was an individual writer who experienced any greater out door adventure than this rugged character. For that reason the film "Jack London," which comes to the Everglades Theatre Sunday-Monday, is one of the fastest moving adventure stories that has reached the screen in some time.
In the cast are Michael O'Shea as Jack London, Susan Hayward, Osa Massen, Harry Davenport, Frank Craven, Virginia Mayo.

finely drawn characterization and the picture from start to finish is one of the most interesting dramas to come to our local screen in some time.

Tuesday and Wednesday ushers in Jimmy Lydon starring in the Henry Aldrich series in his latest picture under the title "Henry Aldrich Haunts a House." In the cast with Jimmy are Charles Smith, John Liel, Olive Blakeney, Joan Mortimer, Vaughn Glasser and some lesser lights.

One thing you can make certain, just from the title, there will be a continuous roll of laughter from the very beginning of this picture.
It will no doubt be good news to the majority of cinematic fans to learn that Jane Withers will return to the Everglades screen on Thursday-Friday in a light comedy with music under the title "My Best Gal." In the cast with Jane are Jimmy Lydon, Frank Craven, Fortuna Bonanova and Jack Boyle. According to all press books available this is a show that is entertaining with plenty of wise cracks to bring more than smirks from the audience.

Saturday brings "Riding West" which is the usual run of cow operas, plenty of action, not too heavy story and the hero always kills his man—or men.
See you at the movies—Mal.

"We are kept pretty busy now working from eight in the morning to five and six at night. It is interesting work and I like it. Often at night I am so tired that I just take a shower, eat and go to bed, that is if there isn't a good show. Saw Bing Crosby in "Going My Way" the other night. Best one yet."

IMMEDIATE

ation, to be discharged by North New River system.
2. Improve the Holloway Canal to discharge 750 c.f.s. Middle Fork of New River. This would permit discharge of 500 c.f.s. from upper reaches of canal in addition to 1,000 c.f.s. from permanent conservation area.

MIAMI CANAL
1. Construct permanent dam in channel two miles south of Bolles Canal to prevent backflow from idle lands west of that point.

CROSS CANAL
(6-Mile Bend to 20-Mile Bend)
Improvement of Channels and Controls

1. Improve channel from bend eastward to capacity to discharge 750 c.f.s. at West Palm Beach Canal.

2. Provide controls at both ends of canal to regulate between West Palm each Canal and Hillsboro Canal.

Levees and Controls to Retard Flow of Surface Water

1. Levees on north side of canal to provide channel capacity to 2.0 feet above ground elevation.

South New River Canal
Improvements of Channel and Controls

1. Re-locate earthen dam 4 miles east of present dam to eliminate 4 miles of seepage inflow and surface runoff in order that more canal capacity will be available for use by Davis grovelands when needed.

Levees and Controls to Retard Flow of Surface Water

1. Construct simple controls in all entering laterals from north to provide better regulation and less wastage of water from North New River Canal.

BOLLES CANAL

YOUR INVASION!

FROM General Bradley, leading the Invasion ground forces, right through every rank, American men now face a brutal, desperate, able enemy. For this invasion has only begun—before our fighters lies a hard and bloody task, one that demands all their courage, backed by all your faith in their ultimate victory.

That faith will be tested many times in this invasion—in grim struggles, setbacks, possibly even temporary defeats. It will be up to you to remember that early victories usually only mean more savage opposition from a foe made more bitter, more ruthless as the shadow of his doom grows larger—up to you to keep that faith in days and nights of gloom as well as in hours of triumph.

There is little that you can do to show that you realize what they must face, perhaps for many months. But one thing you can do—back the attack with every dollar you can spare! Let the Bonds you buy in this greatest of Drives be the measure of your belief in their ultimate victory!
